SALUDA, S.C.—If you stand in the main street of St. Williams and about for "Rogers" the whole population may turn out. Every one of the 130 inhabitants of the little town near here is named Rogers, workers of a guide book said.

CANADA AND RUSSIA RESUME FAVORABLE TRADE PACT

OTTAWA—Canada and Soviet Russia have resumed friendly trade relations, it was announced last Friday by Premier Mackenzie King. Since early in 1931 when each country placed embargoes against imports from the other, trade between them has been small. These embargoes have now been removed.

A SUMMER SUNSET

(E.F. Brunner)

Is there anything more beautiful than the prairie sunsets of Alberta? I think not. When we stop to think that dust particles, moisture and humidity are the elements that compose a nuclei of clouds in the atmosphere, cannot we believe that the Supreme Being which created these things create also the daily farewell departure of the sun?

It was an exceptionally mild day. The sky was a deep, azure blue, spotted here and there with white clouds that looked in utter repose. Toward evening the cloud formation had gathered to await the splendor of the setting sun would give them.

A gradual change was evident. The whiteness of the fleecy clouds blended to a lovely shade of sea-shell pink. In the eastern sky a white full moon became embedded in the delicate softness of its surroundings.

Around the sun shone a mass of brilliant yellow where the golden chariot slowly wended its way, but nearer the horizon were rifts of pink and pale blue clouds. Several minutes later they were tinged to a misty purple and then rose, flecked with white, where the essence of sheer beauty—pink streaked with silver wisps of cloudland.

Above the sun was a big layer of dark blue clouds and directly above them was an emerald-like mass of clear sky alternated with striped cloudlets in silver, sapphire and gold. Cloudy rifts now obstructed the silver moon.

The mellowed background gradually changed to a misty grey, and where the sun had set there was a deep, rosy afterglow. But, the moments of beauty were not entirely gone, for, with the setting sun the dusky, greyed cloudlets once again were revealed in charming cloudland, were gloriously arrayed in a coverlet of silver peach.

A few seconds later every vestige of colorful beauty had vanished.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Reid Sr. and Jean Sherry returned from their trip to Monday. Mr. Reid returned on Wednesday. Mr. Reid and Jean will visit with relatives in the city for a few days.

Lt.-Col. Philip C.H. Primrose New Alta. Lieutenant-Gov'nor

OTTAWA—New lieutenant-governors for Alberta and Saskatchewan were named by Order-in-Council last week, the appointments made necessary by expiration of the terms of present incumbents, both of whom have served beyond their statutory limits.

In Alberta Lieut.-Col. Philip C.H. Primrose, a native of Pictou, N.S., was named to succeed Hon. William J. Walsh, who was appointed May 5, 1931.

In Saskatchewan the appointee is Archibald F. McNab, Regina, who succeeds Lieut.-Col. H.E. Munroe, appointed March 31, 1930.

Both new appointments are effective as from October 1.

Fifty years of public service in western Canada lie behind Lt. Col. Primrose of Edmonton. He will be the first to have held the office of lieutenant-governor in the province since 1885, he served at Macleod, Lethbridge, Dawson City and Whitehorse, and Regina before leaving the force in 1915.

Mr. Primrose was appointed police magistrate for Edmonton in 1915 and held that position until last year. He married a daughter of Major R. B. Deane of the R.N.W.M.P. and has three children, Neil, a Vagabond, and two daughters, Phyllis and Sybil, at home.

PURE BOILED CANDIES HEALTHY, DOCTORS AGREE

Doctors agree that simple, pure boiled candies are a healthful food for children and restore energy-lacking sugars to the system. They are particularly nourishing and beneficial in winter when the cold weather and long hours of school work make added demands upon the child's vitality, says Janet Hamilton writing on "Energy in Candy" in the August issue of "The C-L-O." She describes hard-boiled candies made by a machine which turns out 500 each minute, every candy individually wrapped.

CONSTABLE J. STEEVES IS POPULAR WITH INDIANS

In a letter to a friend in Drumheller, Constable Jim Steeves, who recently left the local detachment of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, to take over duties at Fort Norman, tells how he became the hero of the day among the Indian population of the district.

One of the tribe had fallen in the McKenzie river and Steeves dove in after him, effecting a successful rescue. The Indian had just about taken his last swallow of water when reached by the constable. It was not so much the rescue that made Constable Steeves popular, but the unconventional manner in which he saved the Indian—Drumheller Plaindealer.

DOWN ON THE FARM

Down on the farm, 'bout half past four
I slip on my pants and sneak out the door;

Out of the door I run like the chicken:
To milk the cows, and feed the chickens,

Clean out the barn, carry Nancy and Jiggs, Separate the cream, and slop all the pigs,

Work two hours then eat like a Turk.
And, by heck, I'm ready for a full day's work

Then I grease the wagon and put on the rack, Throw a jug of water in an old grain sack,

Hitch up the horses, hustle down the lane,
Must get the hay in for it looks like rain.

Look over yonder! Sure as I'm born,
Cattle on the rampage, cows in the corn!

Start across the meadow, run a mile or two Heaving like I'm wind-broke, get wet clear through,

Get back to the horses, then for recompense,
Nancy gets astraddle the barbed-wire fence,

Joins all aching and muscles in a jerk,
I'm fit as a fiddle for a full day's work.

Work all summer till winter is high,
Then figure up the books and have a big sigh,

Worked all year, didn't make a thing;
Got less cash now than I had last Spring.

Now some people tell us that there ain't no hell,
But they never farmed so they can't tell.

When spring comes 'round I take another chance
While the fringes grow longer on my old gray pants,

Give my spenders a hitch, my belt another jerk,
And, by heck, I'm ready for a full year's work.

LONG YEARS AGO

Sept. 16, 1920

Miss Belle Smith has returned to Calgary to resume her studies.

PORCH CLIMBERS

It is by the appropriate term of "porch climbers" that a paper does not call the pest agent that afflict the general public, particularly at this season of the year. The time is upon us when the emergency war, and afraid to go to his own front door, for fear he will be confronted with an insistent, persistent individual with something to sell.

This type of infestation is basically wrong with the whole type of the porch climbing racket is that it makes a place of business of the home and the home according to all standards, should be a refuge from business.

To fact it is the boast of these porch climbers that they do not have offices, they do not have stores, and they do not sell through stores. In other words, they make a store of your home giving you no choice of business hours and no choice of goods. They do not rent your door step, they seize it, imposing on the reluctance of their victim to make a scene by throwing them out.

This particular racket is obviously unfair to legitimate business. Great companies flourish and make millions because they need not carry the expense of offices and stores, so long as they can use a million private homes to do business in.

These agents as everyone knows are trained men and invulnerable to ordinary discouragements. They have studied your habits, know your areas and peculiarities. They have built up arguments to defeat your standard objections. And strangers of all, they can count on your reluctance to strew man's blood upon your doorstep, and with incredible brazen, they play out their whole game within your boundaries.

A porch climber preys primarily on the woman. He calls her by her name when she comes to the door, so she assumes he may be her husband's cousin. A moment later when she finds her mistake, she cannot instantly change her voice and call him a viper. And he sits on that moment of indecision to bore in—of course people can refuse to open the front door at all. The ring might mean a telegram or a friend. No, you will continue to answer the knock. And each time you will fight the whole tide of vile again, with the man outside steadily making headway.

To almost an equal extent the business men of the town suffer from the same infestation. Here are agents sent out from firms in the south and west, with no offices, no rentals, no taxes in the town. They prowl through the territory selling goods which should be handled in local business places possibly taking business from local dealers. They live in other people's offices contributing nothing to any community. They maintain no payroll, pay no taxes. They use your home or office as sample rooms, saving hotel bills and store rent. And who all are so dumb as to unite to repel these organized attacks is difficult to understand.

Mr. Aaron Klassen left Tuesday to visit with his sister in Saskatchewan.

WILL HARD-SURFACE PIECE OF CALGARY-EDMONTON ROAD

The first 30 miles of the Calgary-Edmonton highway north from Calgary will be hard-surfaced next spring. Hon. W. A. Fallow, provincial minister of public works, announced in Edmonton last week.

The 30 miles of the main highway immediately south of Edmonton would also be hard surfaced at the same time the minister announced.

Completion of these two stretches with other hard surfacing projects carried out this year and now under way would give a good start on the program for hard surfacing of provincial roads. Mr. Fallow said. The projects now under way include: those from Calgary to Strathmore and Calgary to Okotoks.

BEISEKER HOTEL BURNS WITH LOSS OF $15,000.00

Starting about noon Monday, fire swept through the 30-roomed $15,000 hotel at Beiseker and burned it to the ground within 30 minutes. Cause of the fire was unknown.

Captain Charles Whitbread of the Calgary fire department and four men sped to the scene of the fire from Calgary in the emergency wagon, carrying chemicals, covering the distance in an hour.

MEAHORN GIVEN 12-MONTH TERM FOR IRRESPONSIBLE GUN

LONDON—George Andrew McMahon, 32, described as a journalist, was sentenced to 12 months at hard labor by Mr. Justice Graves Lord at the Old Bailey Monday on an indictment arising from the revolver incident on Constitution Hill July 16 when the King was returning from reviewing the guards.

Three indictments altogether were brought against the prisoner, but two the judge directed a verdict of not guilty and the indictment on which McMahon was sentenced was for "Producing near the person of the King a pistol, with intent to alarm His Majesty."

YOU KNOW THE KIND

A pompous stranger stalked into the office and demanded to see the manager.

"I'm sorry but he's not here," replied the clerk. "Is there anything I can do?"

"No," snapped the visitor, "I never deal with underlings. I'll wait until the manager returns."

"Very well, take a seat," said the clerk, and went about his work.

About an hour later the man became impatient.

"How much longer do you think the manager will be?" he demanded.

"Nearly two weeks," was the reply. He went away on his vacation the day before yesterday."

RAYMOND SUGAR FACTORY TO START RUN SEPT. 26th

Sampling of beets is underway now at Raymond and the weight and sugar content of samples so far is well up to the average.

The sugar content increases as the season advances and it is too early for an estimate of average tonnage or sugar content. Supt. C.R. Wing has his staff pretty well lined up and the mill will commence slicing Monday, September 28, on what is expected to be a run of from 100 to 110 days' duration.

It was the first big snowstorm of the year and the teacher felt it her duty to warn the pupils before she dismissed them.

"Boys and girls should be careful to avoid colds at this time of year," the began solemnly. "I had a darling little pupil only seven years old. One day he went to school in the snow and his head and neck were all red. Pneumonia set in and in three days he was dead." The schoolroom was quiet. The young man in the back row asked: "Where's his sled?"

A CAMPAIGN OF FALSEHOOD

The opponents of the present methods of grain marketing are using freely the weapons of abuse and misrepresentation in endeavouring to discredit the grain trade, to force their own policies upon the country and to obtain an unfair advantage for the Pools at the country elevator points.

THE FOLLOWING FACTS ARE TRUE:

1. The Western Pools are and have been since their inception, members of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. They continually use the facilities of the Exchange for the benefit of their customers.
2. When representatives of the grain trade were called upon to give advice to the Dominion Government in 1935 concerning the formation of a Wheat Board, they appeared publicly before a Parliamentary Committee. On that occasion, as the first witnesses called, they advised the Government to appoint a Wheat Board, to provide a minimum price for the protection of farmers and to use every available channel to market Canadian wheat and to maintain Canada's place in the wheat markets of the world.

3. The Winnipeg Grain Exchange is one in the chain of world's grain markets. It is a meeting place for all buyers and sellers of grain. The grain trade has no quarrel with those who think a better method of marketing can be found, but to discredit the grain trade by a method of marketing that will better serve the interests of the farmer.

4. It is the interest of the grain trade that the farmer should obtain the best possible value for his product and the maximum Government support in the hour of his need. The interest of the grain trade is not that at variance with that of the grain producer.
On the contrary, the grain trade realizes keenly that the prosperity of agriculture is essential to the well-being of the Dominion and of all its industries, including their own.

5. No line elevator company, any more than a Pool elevator company, designs to make its profit from the fluctuation of grain prices, which are determined by numerous causes that are not and cannot be controlled by the grain trade, the Wheat Board or the Pools.

6. As has been stated before on numerous occasions, in the plainest possible terms, the grain trade and the Winnipeg Grain Exchange have made no representations to the Government against the fixing of a high minimum price nor in favor of the disestablishment of the Wheat Board or the curtailment of its activities.

THE FOLLOWING QUOTED STATEMENTS ARE FALSE:

1. The Western Producer, which is the organ of the Saskatchewan Pool, states in its issue of September 10, 1936, that the Government has decreed the death of the Wheat Board and thereby has complied with the express desire of the grain trade. THIS IS FALSE. The grain trade has expressed no such desire.

2. The same paper, in the same issue, states, "The work of a generation is to be scuttled and if its present intentions are carried out next year, and for many years thereafter, the farmers, if they have a crop, are to be thrown to the wolves of the Grain Exchange." This statement is merely a malicious and impudently false. If it is intended to mean that the members of the Grain Exchange which comprises all the elevator companies (including the Pools) the mills and merchants, both foreign and domestic, who complete for the sale of the Western Canadian crop, are organized for the purpose, not of service to the producer but to prejudice his interest, this statement is not only false but must be known to be false to the editor and owner of this paper.

3. The following statement is contained in a circular forwarded to various organizations throughout Western Canada by the Saskatchewan Provincial President of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation: "The Government, by setting the pegged price at 87¢, basis No. 1 Nor. Port William, is to be the farmer's enemy." This statement is false and can be only based upon complete ignorance or extreme malice. No line elevator company any more than any Pool elevator, designs to make any profit from the fluctuations of the grain prices. The grain trade challenges the gentleman who made this statement to explain it and prove it. It is inconceivable that the Western Pools and the elevator companies who have served the producer of Western Canada for so many years, efficiently and honourably, should be willing to continue to belong to an institution which is organized for such evil purpose.

4. The numerous statements being made throughout the country by propagandists that the grain trade is desirous of anything but the welfare of the farmer, or has brought pressure upon the Government with reference to the Wheat Board or the wheat policy of Canada, is untrue.

NOTE: It is understood that a commission will shortly inquire into the grain marketing system. The grain trade invites those who have made the above statements and similar misrepresentations of fact, to appear before the Commission and support their statements by evidence and argument.
